The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about the date(s) listed below, you or your organization committed the following violation(s) of Federal law:

Date of Violation: June 16, 2012

15 U.S.C. § 1824(8) – Unlawful Acts

“The failing to establish, maintain, or submit records, notices, reports, or other information required under section 1823 of this title.”

15 U.S.C. § 1823(d) – Horse shows and exhibitions: Record keeping and reporting requirements

“The management of a horse show, horse exhibition, or horse sale or auction shall establish and maintain such records, make such reports, and provide such information as the Secretary may be regulation reasonably require for the purposes of implementing this chapter or to determine compliance with this chapter.”

9 C.F.R. § 11.22(a) – Records Required and disposition thereof

“The management of any horse show ... shall maintain... all pertinent records containing: (6) A copy of each class or sale sheet containing... the names and addresses (including street address, post office box, and ZIP code) of horse owners... and the name and address (including street address, post office box, and ZIP code) of the person paying the entry fee and entering the horse in a horse show... (8) The identification of each horse, including the name of the horse, the name and address (including street address, post office box, and ZIP code) of the owner, the trainer, the rider or other exhibitor...”

Jennifer Condren failed to maintain required records, such as the full addresses of horse owners, riders, and trainers, at the HAWHA Spring Classic in Mt. Vernon, MO.

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since the violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS official.
